LACROSSE MATCH.

N. W. M. F. AND PRINCE ALBERT CLUBS.

A lacrosse match between the above teams which resulted in a draw, took place on the McKay grounds Thursday the 4th inst., at 3 p.m. A slight fall of rain occurred early in the afternoon, which had the effect of making the grounds for a time in a very undesirable condition. However, this was more or less made up to us in the delightful breeze that glided gently to the east. A large concourse of citizens assembled to witness the game, and the general opinion prevailed that it was one of the finest games yet seen. Ample proof of this could be found in the manner an occasional sweet "burial" escaped from the lips of the fair sex present. The Police team surpassed, physically their opponents, but the latter is not always to the strong, and the way the Police Albert boys skirmailed around after the ball was beautiful to behold. It will be remembered these two teams met on the first of July when the Prince Albert men secured four straight games within the allotted time. It was not surprising therefore that the Police team put forth all their efforts to retrieve themselves from this defeat. Our popular young townsman Mr. G. C. McLeod was selected referee, in which capacity he acquitted himself to the entire satisfaction of all.

Quarter Master Sergt. Parker and Mr.

S. J. Donaldson acted as umpires, while

Sergt. Major Smart and A. S. Stewart priced the Police and Prince Albert teams respectively. At 3 p.m., the reference ordered the men to draw up in line, and when they had done so the positions of the players stood as follows:

P. A. L. C.

Const. Leslie goal J. Wignone

" St. Denis point J. Knowles

" Powers cover point Willoughby

" Perry defence field G. Nelson

" Morrow D. Williamson

" Aske J. D. McIntosh

" Smith centre J. Afford

Sergt. Jenkins home field N. McKenzie

Const. Garrison W. V. MacIsaac

Corpl. Talbert A. A. B. Sprout

Const. Doyle outside home W. R. Fish

Const. Doyle inside home A. Gervais

After some explanations by the referee, the ball was faced by Smith and Afford.

Smith got the advantage and was running down the field in great style, Afford being him, however, and coming up to him a general scrimmage ensued, out of which McIntosh came with honour and by a well directed throw sent the ball in front of the Police goal, Powers and Perry were there and between them succeeded in landing the ball well down on the Prince Albert goals. Wignone came to the rescue, and after some excellent dodging and running sent it to Fish, who in turn took a magnificent shot on the Police goal, but Leslie proved he was not asleep; he captured the ball and made a capital run and throw, landing it among the Prince Albert defence, who had their hands full in working it back again. In this manner the ball passed and repassed. Every man did his utmost. At last Const.

Doyle by a fancy tip scored game for the Police—time 40 minutes.

Defeat evidently stung the citizens in the face. The captain, however, made some slight changes to strengthen his team, Fish and Sprout were placed on defence and Knowles and Williamson took their places on home.

In the next game Smith and Afford again faced. A change resulted, and for a time the ball did not pass the second defence field on either side, both teams exerting themselves in the ex-trême. Wignone, Fish, Sprout, McIntosh, Afford and Willoughby displaying excellent skill for the P. A. team, while Powers, Morrow, Smith, Garrison and Talbert were of equally good service to the Police team. It seemed for a time as though the Police would score the next game; however, Mr. Jones captured and threw the ball well on the Police flags, Knowles shoved St. Denis slightly back, and the latter made a dash for the police goal, but he was at his heels, a look of despair on his face. The ball was tipped over Leslie's stick and the game was scored for the Prince Albert boys—time 35 minutes.

Both teams were now equal as far as games were concerned.

The ball was again faced, and after thirty minutes playing to which every inch of ground was thoroughly contested by both teams, and during which the greatest enthusiasm prevailed among the spectators, the referee called time and declared the match a draw.

In the evening the Police entertained the citizen team to a sumptuous repast at Police's restaurant, which was a very interesting stage of the proceedings.

Sergt. Major Smart presided. After full justice had been done the various catables, Sergt. Major Smart—in a few well chosen sentences—proposed a toast to the Queen, which was enthusiastically responded to by the P. A. team, to the P. A.

L. Club, and responded to by Vice President A. B. Sprout, who after expressing his pleasure at the amiable feelings which existed between the two clubs, in turn proposed a toast to the N. W. M. F. Club, Sergt. Major Smart,

FRIDAY, AUG. 5, 1887.

"Give me the liberty to know, to utter and to argue freely, above all liberties," wrote the immortal Milton.
In his day there was indeed little real freedom of any kind, and the liberty of the press was then but an aspiration, to all appearance, of the most remote attainment. It has been reserved for our day and for our Anglo-Saxon race to obtain an amount of liberty in most ways, and notably in this respect, to which our own ancestors were strangers and which even the present generation in most foreign countries has never to this day enjoyed. We can hardly imagine what intelligent foreigners, European continentalists for instance, must think when they become first acquainted with the perfect freedom and nonchalance with which American newspapers discuss momentous and vital questions, cut and slash public measures and scarify prominent men without mercy.

Our Dominion press also takes full advantage of the perfect liberty it enjoys. Long may it do so and may such liberty never degenerate into license. We must say, however, we like not the airy carelessness with which some of our contemporaries indulge in comments on the comparative merits of the British connection and we are greatly mistaken if the thoughtful reading public enjoy the numberless drenches of dreary verbiage which a portion of the Canadian press continues pouring over the land on the unalloyed benefits of commercial union and those jeremiads on the unmitigated evils of centralization, the decided ill-success of the Confederation and the sins and shortcomings of our rulers in gross and in detail, in which these press pessimists virtually tell us the country is going to the dogs.

Two or three years ago it might have been supposed from reading the same newspapers that all possible and impossible grievances whatever were localized in the Northwest Territories, that we suffered untold hardships and moreover that though we wanted everything we could do nothing for ourselves, that we were, generally speaking, a poor grumbling set. But grievances real or imaginary, are no longer the sole heritage nor the distinguishing feature of the North West. We seem to be now tolerably happy and contented in our position and prospects. It appears it is now the turn of some of the older provinces to feel themselves down trodden and illused and misgoverned. It is they whom blind guides and interested orators have taken in hand to lead to happiness by first showing them their misery and their folly. But they will survive the process and see through it all in time.

We observe there is an Inter-Provincial Congress in course of organization. It will probably act as a safety valve to blow off pent-up and superfluous energy and we may hope it will discover a perfect panacea for all the ills Canadian flesh is heir to. Possible croakers may however be told beforehand that there is no patriotism in belittling their country—that many sound judges think the said country is moving on quite pleasantly—that considering the bad times prevailing all over the world, Canada has had good reason to congratulate herself on her unclouded progress and that one thing she decidedly wants now is some letting alone.
We may do worse than possess our souls in patience for a time and repose some confidence in the rulers we have so recently replaced over us.

The population of the North West Territories bids fair to become by and bye as cosmopolitan in its character as are the United States themselves. Not to speak of the English and French speaking Canadians, who may almost be reckoned indigenous, we are constantly receiving recruits from the different races that go to make up the United Kingdom as well as most of the other European nationalities. The Scandinavian element is becoming fully represented as well by native born Swedes, Norwegians and Danes as by their near relatives the Icelanders. The latter in particular have been arriving in large numbers and the cry is, still they come. It almost seems as if a general exodus were about to take place from their interesting but barren island. It is reported that of late the population of Iceland has been suffering severely from bad seasons and storms, and that many more would gladly leave for the Canadian North West were means to enable them to do so forthcoming, which will eventually be provided.

After their volcanic rocks and inhospitable soil, our teeming prairies must seem an earthly paradise, and there is room and to spare for them all, if they choose to come. These Icelanders will without doubt make excellent settlers. All travellers in the island represent the people as industrious, peaceful and religious.
Considering their isolation and by no means affluent circumstances, they are also comparatively well educated and having been inured to hardships from birth they will be able to make light of such little asperities as all must at first expect who embrace the healthful and invigorating life of Canadian pioneers.

The rate for the town is 64 mills, and for the school district within the town limits 5 mills, 24 mills being debentures and 24 for ordinary expenses, such as salaries, etc.

QU'APPELLE.

From the Progress, July 21.
The Progress premises now loom up as a worthy addition to Qu'Appelle street.
There was a shower of rain passed over here yesterday; it was badly needed.
More would do good.

An immense number of agricultural implements have been sold here this year, many of them going to Prince Albert. The farmers have been anticipating a good harvest.

TERRITORIAL NEWS

REGINA.

From the Leader, July 19.

Inspector Morris, N. W. M. P., leaves to-night for his post at Battleford.
Commissioner Herchmer went to Calgary on Friday night.

Several tea trains passed Regina during the week.

Col. Goldie, agent of the British Government, left on Tuesday last for the west.

Mr. P. M. Barker has returned to the capital, after having visiting the registry offices throughout the Territories.

Tuesday last was the annual pay day at Pi-a-pot's Reserve. The occasion was celebrated by a dog feast and medicine dance combined.

A bunch of hay over six feet in length was brought in from Long Lake last week. The hay out there is said to be so long that the farmers frequently lose their cattle among it.

Supt. Cotton, N. W. M. P., has been at the Barracks for a few days, on his return from the east. He leaves for Mc-Leod on Tuesday with Insp. Bruce. He will shortly go to take charge of the post at Battleford.

Medals on account of the late North West rebellion, will be delivered to the Mounted Police next month.

A man was brought to town on Tuesday afternoon last by the Mounted Police caught on Pi-a-pot's reserve with whiskey in his possession, doubtless to sell to the Indians.

LETHBRIDGE.

From the News July 20.

A hand fire engine arrived here last week. It is for the N. W. M. Police, Fort McLeod.

Haying is being commenced in this neighborhood. It is expected the crop will be a good one this year.

A shower of rain at present would be of great benefit to the country, as things are beginning to get pretty dry.

We had a pretty sharp frost here last week. Although not hard enough to do much damage, still some of the tender vegetables were nipped.

Seventy miners arrived from Ohio on July 8. Wednesday evening's train. On their arrival they refused to go to work at the wages promised them and unless the old miners were taken back. After hanging out for several days an agreement between them and the company was arrived at, and they started in mining on the morning of the 11th.

WIMBLEDON.

London, July 14.—There was again to-day a very large attendance at Wimbledon, and late interest was taken in the shooting for the Queen's prize. The first stage was fired by nearly all the firing being at 500 and 600 yards, seven shots each. The highest possible score is 70. Private Gillies, of the 90th battalion, of Winnipeg, leads the Canadians at these ranges and stands high up amongst all competitors, his score being 61. It is impossible to give his exact place, owing to the non-completion of firing by several squads.

In the Heath competition for prizes amounting to £115, twenty shots at 500 yards, the highest possible score being 100, Sergt. C. N. Mitchell, of the 90th, Winnipeg, leads with a score of 90 points.

In the Alexandria competition £1,000, seven shots each, at 500 or 600 yards, prizes 15 each, were secured, after some very keen shooting, by Private W. Langstroth, of the 46th East Durham, 100, of 82nd, Prince Edward Island, 98, of 82nd, Cartwright, of the 47th, Kingston.

In the Altred competition, £400, seven shots, Lieut. Cartwright captured a prize.

July 15.—At Wimbledon to-day the firing at the third or 600 yards' range of the first stage of the Queen's prize was completed. The highest possible number of points at the three ranges of this stage is 105. The highest English score is 95. The Canadian scores are as follows:—200, 500 and 600 yards, seven shots at each: Quartermaster Sergeant Ogg, Guelph field battery, 92; Pte. Gillies, 90th Winnipeg, 90; Lieut. W. Mitchell, 32nd Bruce, 89; Sergeant A. Thompson, Victoria rifle, Montreal, 86; Pte. W. Gamble, 46th East Durham, 86; Corp. W. Langstroth, 36th Cavalry, New Brunswick, 85; Corp. W. Taylor, 63rd Halifax, 81; Pte. J. Wambury, Royal Scots, Montreal, 83; Pte. H. Morris, 13th, Hamilton, 82; Lieut. W. Hora, P. W. O. R. Kingston, 81; Pte. Kimmerly, 49th, Hastings, 81; Sergt. W. C. King, 45th, West Durham, 78; Pte. H. Graham, 13th, Hamilton, 77; Sergt. Loggie, 32nd, Chatham, N. B. 76; Lieut. E. A. Smith, St. John, N. B. rifle company, 73; Lieut. D. L. Hooper, 82nd, P. E. I., 67; Lieut. Geo. Crochette, 82nd, P. E. I., 65; Sergt. C. N. Mitchell, 90th, Winnipeg, 61.

July 16.—As the shooting for the Queen's prize advances the interest naturally increases, and as the number of competitors has been reduced to 300, the results are more appreciated by the spectators. Corp. Taylor, Pte. Morris and Pte. Kambury have taken money prizes in the first stage of the Queen's prize. In the Daily Telegraph prize, £300, seven shots at 500 yards, highest possible score 35, P. A. Mitchell has 34. Pte. Graham and Pte. Kimmerly win £2 each.

In the Prince of Wales' prize, £200, seven shots at 500 and fifteen shots at 600 yards, the first stage was completed to-day. The highest possible score is 35. Pte. Kambury taking 10th place with 32. The following is the Canadian score: Pte. Kambury, 32; Pte. Vallies, 31; Pte. Loggie, 30; Sergt. King, 30; Pte. Kimmerly, 29; P. E. Morris, 20.

July 18.—Saturday being a general half holiday here, the attendance at Wimbledon was considerably augmented and the crack shooting of the various favorites was greatly appreciated. In the Prince of Wales prize, the highest possible score 110, Private Gillies, of the 90th battalion, Winnipeg, tied Hoop, of Manchester, each scoring 97 points. Private Gillies eventually won, thus securing the prize for Canada for the second time. Col. Gibson, of Hamilton, having been the first. He takes £100 and badge.

The second stage of the Queen's competition was completed yesterday, 10 shots 500 yards, and fifteen shots at 600 yards, highest possible score 125, which, with the score of the first stage, makes the highest possible score 230. The following is the Canadian record: Quartermaster Sergeant Ogg, 189; Corporal Langstroth, 189; Sergt. Thompson, 187; Pte. Gillies, 180; Sergt. C. N. Mitchell, 179. Ogg, Langstroth and Thompson are amongst the hundred men who will fire in the third and final stage at 800 and 600 yards.

In the Daily Telegraph prize, £300, seven shots at 500 yards, Sergt. C. N. Mitchell takes a money prize.

In Tyne, £185, in connection with the first stage Queen's prize, Pte. Gillies receives £8, and Sergt. Thompson, Montreal, Corp. Langstroth and Pte. Kambury have each won a smaller sum.

July 20.—At Wimbledon shooting contests to-day for the Kulapore cup English marksmen won the prize, scoring 710 points. Canada was second, making 688 points and took a prize of 400 dollars.

Much interest is exhibited to-day at the final firing for Queen's prize. The first place was won by Lieut. Warren, 1st Middlesex, with 274 points out of a possible 280. Corporal Langstroth, of the 8th Cavalry, New Brunswick, was 2nd with 260 points. He receives £15. Quartermaster Sergt. Ogg, of Guelph Field Battery, who at one time looked like a winner, made 252, and received £12. Sergt. Thompson, Victoria Rifle, scored 249; he also received £12. Both Quartermaster Sergt. Ogg and Sergt. Thompson have taken money prizes in other events.

The Duke of Cambridge visited the Canadian camp to-day, where he was received by Lord Montague, Col. Olmsted (commandant) and Captain Hart, St. John's rifle company. His Royal Highness took his hands with Col. Olmsted and congratulated him on the success of the Canadians, and specially referred to the capital firing of Pte. Gillies. Addressing the volunteers, he said he had great pleasure in meeting them in larger numbers and he trusted they would take back with them pleasing remembrances of what they had witnessed here. He spoke with satisfaction of the jubilee celebrations and loyalty of Canada to the Queen and Motherland. Later in the day the Canadian Camp was visited by the Prince of Wales, who shook hands with the officers and was by desire introduced to Pte. Gillies, on whose sleeve he pinned the badge he had won in the Prince of Wales' contest. Col. Olmsted, Pte. Gillies and Lieut. Mitchell afterwards dined with the Prince.

The Corporation of London contest was issued to-day. The following are the successful Canadians, with their money prizes: Quartermaster Sergt. Ogg, £150; Lieut. Cartwright, £100; Lieut. Smith, £75; Lieut. Hora, £60; Sergt. Mitchell, £50; Corp. Langstroth, £25; Sergt. Loggie, £25; Pte. Riddle, £25; Pte. Kimmerly, £25.
